DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims 1-3 drawn to an invention nonelected with traverse in Paper No. 6. A complete reply to the final rejection must include cancellation of nonelected claims or other appropriate action (37 CFR 1.144) See MPEP § 821.01.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 4 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Applicant's Admitted Prior Art (APA) in Fig.6 in view of Gerrans, Jr. (US 5,885,108).

Applicant's admitted prior art discloses substantially the claimed invention except for the continuously reduced portion. Gerrans teaches a molded portion (16) wherein a circumferential size of the molded portion from a part corresponding to the terminal connecting portions is continuously reduced, so that the rear end portion has a same diameter as the cable (22), and wherein there is no increase in the circumferential size of the molded portion in a direction parallel to a direction in which the terminal fittings extend in order to provide a smoother gripping on the molded portion. Therefore, it would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to form the molded portion of APA being continuously reduced, as taught by Gerrans, to provide a smoother gripping on the molded portion.

Art Unit: 2833

Claims 6 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Applicant's APA in Fig.6 in view of Gerrans, and further in view of Hauchard et al. (US 4,969,845).

Applicant's APA, as modified by Gerrans, discloses substantially the claimed invention except for the plurality of parallel alternate concave grooves and convex ribs. Hauchard teaches a plurality of parallel alternate concave grooves and convex ribs (37) formed in a direction parallel to a direction that the wire (14) extends, and arranged side by side in a second direction perpendicular to the first direction, to save material while providing structural strength to the molded portion. Therefore, it would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to form the molded portion having a plurality of parallel alternate concave grooves and convex ribs formed in a direction parallel to a direction that the wire extends, as taught by Hauchard, to save material while providing sufficient structural strength to the molded portion.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 07/02/03 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

In response to applicant's argument that Gerrans does not teach or suggest that the molded portion provides a smoother gripping, the examiner recognizes that obviousness can only be established by combining or modifying the teachings of the prior art to produce the claimed invention where there is some teaching, suggestion, or motivation to do so found either in the references themselves or in the knowledge generally available to one of ordinary skill in the art. See In re Fine, 837 F.2d 1071, 5 USPQ2d 1596 (Fed. Cir. 1988) and In re Jones, 958 F.2d 347, 21 USPQ2d 1941 (Fed. Cir. 1992). In this case, it would have been evident to one skill in the art that a contoured shape, as taught by Gerrans provides a smoother gripping by avoiding substantially sharp or pointy edges that are uncomfortable to a user's hand.

In response to applicant's argument that "it is not clear how the alleged smoother gripping outer covering 16 of Gerrans would have been incorporated into the APA", please note that the test for obviousness is not whether the features of a secondary reference may be bodily incorporated into the structure of the primary reference; nor is it that the claimed invention must be expressly suggested in any one or all of the references. Rather, the test is what the combined teachings of the references would have suggested to those of ordinary skill in the art. See In re Keller, 642 F.2d 413, 208 USPQ 871 (CCPA 1981).

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
